

907 NQESH applicants in DepED RO VII

DepED Region VII has registered 907 applicants for the National Qualifying Examination for School Heads to be conducted by the Department of Education (DepED) through the National Educators Academy of the Philippines (NEAP). The examination will be administered simultaneously throughout the country on October 30, 2011 from 8:00 AM to 12:00 noon. In Region VII, Central Visayas, the Regional Testing Center is Abellana National High School.

“NQESH serves as a mechanism for selecting competent School Heads in the Public Basic Education Sector who will perform their functions upon assumption to duty. It covers the following dimensions of school leadership: Instructional Leadership, School Leadership, Creating a Learning Climate, Professional Human Resource Development, Parent Involvement in Building Communities, School Management and Daily Operations, Personal Integrity and Interpersonal Sensitivity, English Language Proficiency, and Reading Comprehension.”
